

invites you to the:

Stardust Gala Auction

with thanks to:

GEMELLI FRAMING

&

VEE GEE BEE
Art

John Martin Borg

TITLE: Clover at the edge of a field under a winter's sky, with distant La Ferla cross.

Dimensions: 56 x 26cm (excluding frame)

Reserve Price: €500

Medium: Watercolour

BIO: John Martin Borg took up watercolour painting a back in 1977 and since then, his works have gained recognition both locally and abroad. He is mostly renowned for his maritime pictures and atmospheric landscapes. Working mostly on location, his watercolours gradually developed into studies of moods and poetic expressions. The artist also has a great interest in abstract and religious works. His works are widely present in prestigious and prominent locations, both locally and abroad.

Joanne Scerri Valentino

TITLE: Storm breaking over Fomm ir-Rih

Dimensions: 50 x 30cm (excluding frame)

Reserve Price: €390

Medium: Watercolour on 100% cotton paper

BIO: Joanne Scerri Valentino feels most at home painting the ruggedness and majesty of Malta's natural landscape where she finds herself rooted and connected. She is drawn to watercolour mainly for its fluidity and unpredictability, enjoying the challenge of coaxing it into shape to capture the atmosphere of a certain place and time. After years of honing her craft, Joanne is now a full-time arts practitioner and her works are cherished in private collections in Malta and abroad.

Marisa Attard

TITLE: Musicians

Dimensions: 49 x 39cm
(framed)

Medium: Pen,
Ink watercolour, collage

Reserve Price: €550

BIO: Marisa Attard is a Malta-based artist and illustrator who loves depicting the weird and wonderful characters that populate her world and her imagination. A keen observer of human behaviour whose paintings and illustrations can be both dark, humorous and endearing.

Moira Scicluna Zahra

TITLE: Gnejna

Dimensions: 26 x 26cm
(framed)

Medium: Scanned Pencil
drawing and Mixed Digital Media

Reserve Price: €300

BIO: Moira is an award-winning Maltese illustrator and children's book author whose work is typically influenced by people, place and culture. Her visual style is versatile, ranging from playful compositions to more expressive artworks with elements of visual storytelling. Moira holds the position of senior lecturer and researcher at MCAST Institute for the Creative Arts and she is the founder of the Malta Community of Illustrators.

James Vella Clark

TITLE: Two Palm Trees

Dimensions: 60 x 50cm (framed)

Reserve Price: €600

Medium: Watercolour on 100% cotton paper

BIO: James Vella Clark is a contemporary Maltese artist known for his abstract, expressionist landscapes that capture the essence of the Mediterranean. Born in 1975 in Malta, he is largely self-taught and draws inspiration from the rugged landscapes and vibrant Mediterranean colours of his homeland. In his landscapes and abstract expressionist works Vella Clark often explores themes of memory, place, and identity, employing bold colours and dynamic compositions. His paintings have been exhibited internationally, gaining recognition for their emotional depth and distinct style and are present in numerous private collections around the world.

Kenneth Zammit Tabona

TITLE: Springtime Mistral

Dimensions: 36 x 41cm
(excluding frame)

Medium: Pen and ink
watercolour on Hahnemuhle paper

Reserve Price: €600

BIO: Kenneth Zammit Tabona, born in 1956, is a prominent Maltese book illustrator and watercolourist known for his vibrant use of colour and distinctive style. His works, inspired by the beauty of Malta's landscapes, urbanscapes, and interiors, have been featured in numerous exhibitions and prestigious collections, including Berlaymont in Brussels. In addition to his art, he has contributed significantly to Malta's cultural scene, founding the Valletta International Baroque Festival and serving as Artistic Director of the Manoel Theatre.

